Teller Wines to hold 2014 Wine Expo to benefit
The Culinary School at the Food Bank of Delaware

Lewes, Del. (February 24, 2014) – Catherine and Kevin Hester, the owners of Teller Wines, paired their love of fine wines and food with a desire to give back to the community.

The result of that effort is the 2014 Wine Expo presented by Teller Wines.

“This will benefit the Food Bank of Delaware, and The Culinary School in particular,” said Mrs. Hester. “There seemed to be a logical association.”

The Culinary School at The Food Bank of Delaware is one of the beneficiaries of the Saturday, March 29 event held at the Lewes Yacht Club from 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

“We are extremely excited to partner with Teller Wines for the 2014 Wine Expo. It will be a great opportunity to showcase the talents of our culinary students, as well as meet the loyal patrons and customers of the Teller Wines family,” said Chad Robinson, Food Bank of Delaware’s Milford branch director.

Guests will have the opportunity to taste more than 90 fine wines and also sample gourmet fare from Matt Haley’s Plate Catering, Nage, The Buttery, Touch of Italy, Annabella’s, Moe’s Southwest Grill, Patty’s of Georgetown as well as The Culinary School at the Food Bank of Delaware.

A silent auction and 50/50 will benefit Coastal Concerts.

Tickets, at $70 each, are now available by calling 644-7400; only 150 tickets will be sold by advance sale only.
