

Coming Together: The Cycle Can Be Broken

Exhibitor Opportunity

Thursday, April 4; Chase Center on the Riverfront

Community organizations are invited to exhibit at the Coming Together: The Cycle Can Be Broken conference. The day-long conference features programming for both adults and children. The adult conference will look at ending hunger and poverty through a trauma-informed care approach. Adult topics include:

- Behavioral Health and Food Insecurity
- Returning Citizens
- A Trauma-Informed Care Model that Works
- Food Insecurity and Students
- Aging Adults
- And more!

Exhibitors will display information to attendees (both adults and children) during the breakfast hour. Exhibitors are expected to be set up between the hours of 8:00 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. At the conclusion of breakfast, exhibitors may break down and leave for the day. If interested in attending the entire conference, the cost to attend is $50/person. To register or learn more, visit www.fbd.org/comingtogether.

There is space for 20 exhibits. Please return form to Kim Turner at kturner@fbd.org.
