Harry K Foundation and Giant Food partner with Food Bank of Delaware to provide Easter meals to Sussex Countians

Milford, Del. (April 11, 2019) – Volunteers from the Harry K Foundation and Giant Food supported a Food Bank of Delaware holiday meal box distribution this morning – just in time for the Easter holiday. School officials from schools supported year round by the Harry K Foundation picked up the holiday meals for families in need. Volunteers from the Foundation and Giant Food stocked cars and an entire Seaford School District bus boxes of nonperishable goods funded by the Harry K Foundation, holiday hams donated by Giant and supplemental items provided by the Food Bank like apples, pork chops, a whole chicken and more. In total, 285 families were supported through the distribution.
